

I oppose the weakening of Indiana's law in regard to our telephone privacy. When I received solicitation calls to my home I am usually angered by their interruption of my evening activities. It is rude and I never want to give the other party my business. I love the privacy law and the peace I have in the day and night. My phone is now used for enjoyment! The receiving of calls from friends and family ONLY! Thanks for Listening!!!!